

Conflict of Interest Certification

Objective:

The intent of this disclosure is NOT to prevent an aspirant supplier from making an application, but rather to provide the decision making authorities with information on which TPSODL can make its own judgments and ensure that dealing with such parties is done fairly and transparently by ensuring that people / parties in conflict of interest are not involved in the transactions / decision making process.

While requesting a registration, a supplier MUST disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest by giving the details of the person/s within the supplier's company (whether a director or an employee) who may be in actual or potential conflict of interest.

Conflict of Interest: An actual or potential conflict of interest with suppliers may arise where, directly or indirectly:

- a) A proprietor or partner or director or employee (who is party to a transaction) of the supplier is also a member of family or relative of a TPSODL employee.
- b) A proprietor or partner or employee (who is party to a transaction) of the supplier is also a director of TPSODL or a person of influence within TPSODL.
- c) A proprietor or partner or director of the company is also a proprietor or partner or director in another company already registered with TPSODL and competing for similar products and / or services.
- d) A company has subsidiary or associate companies already registered with Tata Power and competing for similar product and /or services.

For detailed explanation on when an actual or potential conflict of interest may arise, please refer to Clause 20 of Tata Code of Conduct available on the Tata Power website

(Tata-Code-of-Conduct.pdf \(tatapower.com\))

Format for Declaration: Suppliers willing to register with TPSODL need to print the enclosed which should be printed on the Letter Head of their company and be signed by proprietor / partner / executive directors / person authorized by the company for giving such declaration affixing his name, designation below the signature along with seal of the company.
